Recent Operations

By Paul Rardin

I enjoyed hearing Knight MacGregor, famed baritone, at the Prince theatre Monday night. I've heard more favorable comment about that particular program than anything that has happened in this section lately.

The Pahokee Lions club and the Pahokee Rotary club along with the management of the Prince theatre deserve a great deal of commendation for thinking such an interesting program available.

Mr. MacGregor is a splendid showman as well as a singer. He immediately won the friendship of his audience and sang a varied group of songs which brought loud applause from his listeners.

I hope we can have more such entertainments in these parts.

Can you imagine Backlog's Big Boy Gladiators dressed in an evening gown—high heeled, gold slippers and all the trimmings? That's what you'll see tonight if you attend a presentation of the "Womanless Army" at the Prince theatre.

"Big Boy" has been giving his hair for the occasion and his finger nails carry a brilliant color from the "red dice" polish. His gold evening slippers—made to order, size number 12½—will be occasionally peek from under the trimmed evening gown. It is my opinion that Big Boy's appearance is a brilliant, colorful presentation which will be worth the price of admission. It's a little hard to imagine a man dressed covered with such delicate materials, but it's all on the schedule for the night. There's no doubt about it. Other "Big Boy" men will be dressed in ladies' attire to parade in the fun-fest. If you are looking for an hour's amusement, it's a present when you want to help.

Mr. S. B. Jordan of the Canal Point Baptist church will deliver the annual baccalaureate sermon to Pahokee high school graduates at the Prince theatre on Saturday night.

Dr. Carl N. Herman of West Palm Beach will deliver the commencement address next Saturday night to the graduates of the Pahokee high school auditorium. It is unnecessary for me to state the merits of the speaker. Dr. Herman's ability as a speaker, he has appeared in the Lake Region many times and each time has brought an interesting and original address. I'm sure the commencement address will be on a par with his other addresses.

The Pan-American club of Pahokee high school has sent a delegation to the national convention in Akron, Ohio. To all civic clubs and other organizations that joined in raising the necessary expense money—orchids. The group got together and in a short space of time the necessary cash was on the line. That's the spirit of cooperation. It's all for a worthy cause.

Have you entered any of the "double contests"? They've been several years since I outwitted a BIG black bass. But, my son, I'm really going to do some serious fishing. I've got my equipment all oiled and ready. I don't intend to save a bass that won't tip the beam. I'll take the seven pound and five ounce mark. There's one entered at Coburn's in Palm Point, that weighs twenty pounds. I'll have one bigger or none at all.

Caulliff Thanks

Caulliff, principal of Pahokee, announced yesterday that the school had received $11.58 from the school matinees at the Prince theatre during the 1940-41 school term. Caulliff is planning to make the public know of this splendid sum and publicly expresses the school's thanks to the members of the Prince theatre.

State Senate Has Things To Say That Pegler Won't Like

Columnist Is Scorched By Speech Of Amos H. Lewis

Tallahassee, Fla., May 29.—The Florida Senate Tuesday adopted as its judgment on the lynchings Westbrooke Pegler, an "unmitigated liar" and "an intellectual cockroach" for his syndicated newspaper column about the lynching of a negro at Quincy, May 13.

Senator Amos H. Lewis of Marianna, a former Florida Circuit judge, led a slashing attack on Pegler, in which he said: "This alley-bait snipser, among other things, charges that north and west Florida were set on fire by people who were teachers of Georgia and Alabama and desecrators of the cause of the Confederacy. He charges that the lynchings are illiterate and no better than the rapist."

The senator, to the applause of a packed gallery, declared his resentment at "this vile, cheap, un-justified, scurrilous and scandalous attack upon the state of Florida."

Pegler, winner of the 1940 Pulitzer prize for best domestic reporting, had written about the lynching of a 12-year-old white girl. The negro was seized by four or five men May 12, seriously wounded and left for dead. Found by officers, he was sent in an unguarded ambulance to Tallahassee. En route he was seized again and shot May 13.

"I like to speak kindly of humanity," Senator Lewis said, "but when I speak of a depraved scoundrel like this Pegler I am an animal. I like that he must be the remainder of a litter that saw birth under the front doorstep."

In his prepared address, which the senate ordered printed in its official journal, Lewis referred to Pegler as "a soul-sick, mud-wallowing gutter-scum columnist," "this libertine of literature," "a slinky literary parasite," "a scurrilous libeler," "character assassin," "this repulsive, skinny spivak."

The senator departed from his prepared address to recount the exploits of Floridians who had excelled in military, governmental and scientific pursuits.

"Mr. president," he continued, "no more courage, no more manly virtue, no more culture, courtly and patriotic people ever lived than now dwell amidst the beauty and quietude of the red clay hills of north Florida."

"Westbrooke Pegler does not understand and appreciate the high honor, character, culture and patriotism of the people of this section of Florida. For he has turned them to their high level of life and they have not retrogressed to his gutter level of life."

Senator Pat Walker of Tampa said the paper in his town, that ran the Pegler column apologized for it later, and he deplored the newspapers to be cautious of their columnists, because of their role as moulders of opinion.

Dogs May Run During Summer

Tallahassee, Fla., May 29.—Seventy-five days of summer dog racing each year in Broward county would be possible, if the people approve, under a bill introduced Tuesday by Representative George W. Leaird.

The law would become effective only if ratified at election to be held at the expense of the petitioner and within 15 days of application for the referendum to the county commission.

The State Racing Commission would be given the authority only to determine whether the applicant complies with legal qualifications, and not whether the racing would be in the public's interest.

Between July 1 and Oct. 1, the licensee would have the right to select the track's racing days. The law specifically states the summer racing would not affect the full 90-day winter operation of the track. Owners of the Hollywood Kennel club, as the only dog track in Broward county, would be given the right to lease the plant for summer racing.

RAISE LOAD LIMIT
Tallahassee, Fla., May 29.—The senate Tuesday voted to raise the 40,000-pound trucks to be operated in Florida as certificated carriers.

The top weight limit on these common carriers now is 34,000 pounds. The increase was approved in a bill that passed the senate, 10 to 13, and was sent to the house.

The private truck weight limit recently was increased by the legislature from 34,000 to 40,000 pounds in an act vetoed by former Governor C. R. Sikes and rejected at the current session.

MOVES TO KEY WEST

"Olin Cowart, who has operated the Odorous Dry Cleaning plant in Canal Point for several years, this week moved his equipment to Key West where he will enter business. The building used by Mr. Cowart will be used in the future by R. Cowart, operator of the No Delay Laundry in Pahokee, as a pick-up station.

Leave Belle Glade

Mrs. R. L. Davis, of Belle Glade, has gone to Athens, Ga., to join Mr. Davis where they will make their home. Mr. Davis has been in Athens for several years.

While in the Glades he was connected with the soil conservation survey.

TO WRITE HISTORY

J. E. Donell of Orlando is preparing a "History of the Everglades." He is interested in diaries, memoirs, letters, documents, pamphlets or any other matter that might be included in this history. If Glades residents have such matter they may leave their names and addresses to J. E. Donell in Canal Point and Mr. Donell will contact them.

Must Use Floridians At The Race Tracks

Tallahassee, Fla., May 29.—The legislature Monday approved a bill requiring the operators of race tracks to employ Floridians to pay at least 85 per cent of all salaries to Florida residents.

The bill, which passed the senate unanimously and went to the governor, amends existing law providing that 85 per cent of the employees be Floridians but not setting the amount of money that must be paid to them.

It specifically exempts jockeys, trainers, executives and similar specialized employees.

When the house passed the bill Saturday, an attempt was made unsuccessfully to tack on an amendment prohibiting the employment of Florida legislators at the race tracks. One representative said six members of the present legislature worked at the tracks in Miami last season.

Council Continues Economy Drive

Members of the Pahokee city council continued their economy campaign in their regular meeting last Friday night in council chambers. They recommended a 20 per cent salary cut for council members along with other money-saving ideas.

W. A. "Buck" Humphries, a member of the police force, will take four weeks vacation without pay beginning June 1. Upon his return W. H. "Ford" Cochran will take a four weeks vacation. The council also announced that at the usual hours 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Members of the council are of the opinion that two policemen can take care of the town during the slack summer months. Chief Humphrey Baxter and Patrolman Humphries will have that job this summer after the latter's return from his four weeks vacation.

The council instructed members of the police force to make every effort to enforce existing speed laws and the corporate limits of the town.

Over $600 in back licenses were reported collected at the meeting.

Florida "Swamp" Campaign

This week we came across the following recipe in the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission publication for preparation of "swamp" cabbage. We reprint it exactly as it appeared in that publication.

Trim outer covering of "cabbage" until ends may be pinched off. Be careful not to include any of the hard or green morsels which are bitter and may ruin the entire dish. After outer leaves have been cut and the heart is reached, the entire part is used.

To serve 10 to 12 persons:
8 large cabbages
1/2 cup butter
1/4 pound white bacon
Salt and pepper to taste.
Boil water with bacon until tender.

Add finely chopped cabbage, salt and pepper. Cook slowly, adding butter gradually until contents are tender. This may be served with fish and hash-puppies or any vegetable dish.

The recipe sounds okay to us but we add a little extra touch when we cook "swamp" cabbage. To finish off the job to a king's taste we always add a small can of evaporated milk when the cooking process is over. Another item we like better than the bacon is to add a dozen pork chops—fried about half done—pouring pork chops and grease into the pot of cabbage. In this case very little butter is necessary.

DO YOU SMELL ANYTHING?

Well, we have watched puppy-fighting politics in Palm Beach county for the last two years since taking over publication of this newspaper and we believe it is about time someone took a new dose of cards and called them as they turn, not as they are "turned."

We might say to get off to a good start that unless John R. Beacham, president-elect of the senate, changes his mind about that route to the work of us "we're going to be agin' him". Just saying that much is going to tell us what a "sap" we are.

Then when the votes are counted he may tell us "I told you so." And he may be right, but right on we think that read to the west it all well.

Our reason being that we have traveled about these parts since 1919. Of course that is not very long, but we have seen some semblance of a healthy growth here about the coast. It has been and is going at times and we are not just going to sit idly-by and see the 2,000,000 motorists the state chamber credits us with "going through" here each year, all because a sign could read "go west, my political trained suckers, at Stuart and see Miami through the vastness of the Everglades borders"—Lake Wrecker Leader.

WOULD TAX KEPOSENE

Tallahassee, Fla., May 29.—A tax of three cents a gallon on Kerosene which, along with a 25-cent annual dealer license, would produce an estimated $1,250,000 for old age pensions, was approved by the senate welfare committee. The bill now goes to the house.

TAX FREE BOATS

Tallahassee, May 29.—The Florida Legislature Tuesday voted to permit the private fisherman to operate his boat of 16 feet or less in salt water free from the State license tax.

Senator Collins of Tallahassee said the bill, which passed both Houses and was sent to the Governor, would exempt only one boat for each fisherman, and only if it is used for private fishing.

Murphy Money May Cause Argument

Tallahassee, May 29.—Chairman John Strickland of the Wakulla County commission said today that he will ask his board to direct withdrawal of a suit to enforce transfer of Murphy act money to the State general fund under a bill recently passed by the Legislature.

The suit was filed in Leon County circuit court today and Judge W. May Walker immediately denied a temporary injunction against transfer of the $750,000. Some sale of lands which reverted to the State under the 1937 Murphy act.

William Blount Myers, Tallahassee attorney who filed the suit, said he still plans to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Strickland and S. W. Harvey, a member of the commission, said they had asked Myers Tuesday, however, not to file the suit.

Harvey said the money the county could collect "won't amount to a thing, and the other counties are not doing anything about it."

I don't think our little county should raise up over it."

He said Governor Holland, who had recommended passage of the act, "has treated us mighty nice and I don't want to pull anything over on him."

An Angler's Dream

(from OUTDOOR NEBRASKA)
When the winter nearly over and spring just has begun, there is a sort of "Purim" way. My eyes seek out my tackle box. My hands reach for the new lure. While memories bring back many dreams of fishin' banks I've trod.

Of all the sports and pastimes that one could ever wish. There's none that's quite as thrilling as Anglin' for the fish.

How I long to hear the water. I long to feel the water. I long to feel the water. I long to feel the water.

And a fish's thought is clean. And a fish's thought is clean. And a fish's thought is clean. And a fish's thought is clean.

What more could people wish? That just the angler knows. One fire to sweet contentment. One fire to sweet contentment. One fire to sweet contentment. One fire to sweet contentment.

God bless you, Mother Nature. Your sports are clean and fine. And Anglin' can be a life. When it's good old fishin' time.

The VELVET you ride on.

The VELVET you save

ONCE AGAIN the big Ford car steps away beyond its price class with a ride never before known to the low-price field. With its long, soft, slow-motion springs, its telescopic hydraulic shock absorbers, its more rigid frame and new ride stabilizer, it brings the luxurious velvet riding quality you expect only in costly cars. Velvet quiet, too!

With complete sound-deadening throughout its big, roomy body, and full rubber insulation between body and frame.

YOU'RE ALSO on velvet when you buy the 1941 Ford—particularly the 6-passenger "Special" sedans which are actually the lowest-priced sedans among the low-priced leaders. You save on first cost. Then, remember, the Ford was first in its class in the Gilmore-Grand Canyon Economy Test—with over 25 miles to the gallon. You save on operating cost. And when you trade in, we offer a general allowance on your present car traded in on the 1941 Ford.
